BHFL HAYWARD SATURDAY LEAGUE ROUND UP

Premier Division

Bmth Manor	P-P	Merley Cobham Sports
Hamworthy Rec	P-P	Boldre Royals
Lower parkstone CFC	1-6	Bmth Electric
Parley Sports	3-2	Sway Res

Luke McCoy marked his return to the Bournemouth Electric ranks with a hat-trick when the HAYWARD SATURDAY PREMIER DIVISION leaders gave Lower Parkstone CFC a 6-1 drubbing to go five points clear at the summit. The former Sparkies stalwart had been with Bournemouth Manor since the start of the season but a transfer during the week saw him back in an Electric shirt again. Luke's brother Sean McCoy was also on target for the Sparkies with their other two goals coming from Lucas Geisleichter while John Webb scored Parkstone's consolation goal.

In the other Premier Division game, Tom Mackinder and Joe Petty netted for Sway but Parley Sports just got the better of them 3-2 thanks to Curtis Rayner and a couple of goals from leading marksman Ben Mowlam. It was a fourth successive league victory for Parley which has seen them climb to fifth place in the table.
