 Bmth Electric 2-1 Hamworthy Rec
 Bmth Sports 5-0 Sway Reserves
 Lower Parkstone CFC 2-8 Bmth Manor
 Westover Bmth 1-1 Parley Sports Res

Shane Barney made an immediate impact in his first game of the season for Bournemouth Manor, weighing in with a four goal blast as the hundred per cent HAYWARD SATURDAY PREMIER DIVISION leaders blitzed Lower Parkstone CFC 8-2. Ed Ewens added a hat-trick with a Dan Taylor free kick rounding off the scoring while John Webb and Josh Baker provided some consolation for previously unbeaten Lower Parkstone.

George Knijff netted for nearest rivals Hamworthy Recreation but Bournemouth Electric just got the better of them 2-1 with goals from Darren Saunders and Lee O'Connell.

Mark Desborough and Shaun Steer gave Alderholt the edge 2-1 against Merley Cobham Sports who replied through Luke Dart while Westover Bournemouth and Parley Sports cancelled each other out in a 1-1 draw. Ricky Powell was the Westover marksman with Curtis Rayner replying for Parley.

Bournemouth Sports maintained their perfect League record when they swept Sway aside 5-0 thanks to Ollie Bolton, Nathan Edwards, Scott

Rogers, and a couple of goals from Tony Bellot to take over in second place.
