HAYWARD LEAGUE ROUND UP

Premier Division

AFC Burton	1-5	Bmth Sports
Alderholt	HW	Boldre Royal
Parley Sports Res	2-1	Hamworthy Rec
Swat Reserves	AW	Bmth Manor

Bournemouth Manor are HAYWARD SATURDAY PREMIER DIVISION champions for a third successive season after their 6-1 triumph in the title decider against Bournemouth Electric on Tuesday night. Terry Foote bagged a hat-trick for Manor with the other goals coming via Mickey Finch (2) and Ed Ewens while Luke McCoy was the Electric scorer. Sway's scratched match handed Manor the further three points that put them firmly in the top spot.

Beaten Cup finalists from Thursday night, AFC Burton were beaten 5-1 by Bournemouth Sports to round of a very bad week for the village side. Sports netted through Ian Musselwhite, Tony Bellot, Phil Nicolaou, and a couple of goals from Elliot Dawson. Alex Whitehouse scored Burton's consolation goal.

M.A. Hart Poole Bay Cup winners Parley Sports still had enough left in the tank from Thursday night's 145 minute marathon to shade it 2-1 against Hamworthy Recreation. Ben Mowlam, whose extra time winner, won the final for Sports was again on target with both goals to subdue the Hammers who replied through Joe Bennett.
