

HAYWARD SATURDAY LEAGUE ROUND UP
SATURDAY 14th JANUARY 2017

Ed Ewens and Luke Goddard both bagged hat-tricks when Hamworthy Recreation romped to a 9-3 victory for the second week running in the HAYWARD SATURDAY PREMIER DIVISION. This time it was Parley Sports on receiving end against the rampant Hammers whose other goals came via Ollie Bolton, James Morris, and Anthony Bolton. Parley replied through Curtis Rayner and a couple of goals from Jordan Ostler. League leaders Bournemouth Manor went down 1-0 to a goal from Kean Ashton against Westover Bournemouth and unbeaten Bournemouth Sports replace them in pole position after their 2-1 success against Merley Cobham Sports courtesy of Ian Musselwhite's penalty and an Adam Baxter strike. Daniel Finnis was the Merley marksman. In the other Premier Division game, Harry Denyer's strike for Alderholt was not quite enough to save them from a 2-1 defeat against Bournemouth Electric who netted through Stuart Dixon and Rob Harber.

Luke Pidgley was the four goal star when Bournemouth Manor Reserves opened up a seven point lead in DIVISION ONE after emerging 5-2 winners from the top of the table clash with Lower Parkstone CFC. Will Foster was also on target for the unbeaten pacesetters with John Webb scoring both Parkstone goals. Electric Reserves take over in second place on goal difference after Jamie Morgan, Mark Pudney, and Matty Ings ensured a 3-1 success against Bournemouth Sports Reserves. Fordingbridge Turks move into the top half of the table after Scott Newman, Harry Stokes, and Dan Parker upended Bisterne United 3-0 while Brandon Doe and Adam Clark enabled bottom placed Queens Park Athletic to subdue Alderholt Reserves 2-0.

AFC Pennington preserved their slender lead at the top of DIVISION TWO when Adam Lavis, Matt Maddison, and Danny Veal gave them the edge 3-2 against Westover Bournemouth Reserves.

AFC Burton Reserves remain just one point behind with two games in hand after shading it 2-1 against West Howe thanks to goals from Leon Jarrett and Dan Cook.

Mudford Mens Club remain in contention after Liam Welton (2) and Harry Birch clinched a 3-2 win over Poole Borough.

Jon Spooner scored both goals when struggling New Milton Eagles surprised third placed Bransgore United 2-0 but tailenders Talbot Rise were on the receiving end again when AFC Bransgore just got the better of them 4-3 courtesy of Johnny Waller and a Lee Rimmer hat-trick.

Redlynch & Woodfalls United Reserves hold top spot in DIVISION THREE despite taking a heavy 5-0 tumble against Cherry Bees whose goals came courtesy of Sean Griffin, Matt Avery and a Max Evans hat-trick.

Matthew Wesby netted for FC Barolo but Magpies held them to a 1-1 draw thanks to a Jamie Spear strike.

M.A.HART CUP COMPETITION ROUND UP
SATURDAY 14th JANUARY 2017

Levi Ridealgh struck for AFC Burton in the third round of the M.A.HART POOLE BAY CHALLENGE CUP but First Division Sway were 3-1 winners thanks to Dan Marks and a couple of goals from Nick Broom to book their place in the semi finals.
