Hamworthy Recreation	P-P	Bmth Electric

Two second half goals from substitute Levi Ridealgh, one of which was a stunning effort into the top corner, ensured that AFC Burton emerged 4-2 winners from their HAYWARD SATURDAY PREMIER DIVISION game with Westover Bournemouth. Sam Nash and Alex Whitehouse were the other Burton scorers.

Chris Forbes in action for AFC Burton v Westover

It was the ideal result AFC Burton ahead of Thursday night's prestigious M.A.Hart Pickford Cup Final at Hurn Bridge (7:30pm) when they go head to head with Bournemouth Manor whom they have beaten twice so far this season, once in the League and then in the M.A. Hart Page Croft Cup semi final.

Michael Blythe and Darren Orchard bagged two each when third placed Parley Sports upended Alderholt 6-2 with Chris Bryer-Ash and Andy Phillips also on target. Alex Brown and Nathan Welch were the Alderholt marksmen.

Bournemouth Sports returned to winning ways when Jack Sullivan and Harvey Nichols gave them the edge 2-1 against Lower Parkstone CFC who replied through Iain Kay.
