

CUP COMPETITIONS ROUND UP

FC Hajduk shade it in extra time

An own goal in extra time was the undoing of West Howe when FC Hajduk shaded it 2-1 in the MARK HART SUNDAY SENIOR CUP semi-final. Elliott Dawson gave Hajduk an early lead and they thought they had scored a second goal only to have it disallowed.

Sam Davis equalised for West Howe later in the first half and, with neither side able to break the deadlock, this fiercely contested semi final went to extra time. The game swung Hadjuk's way in extra time thanks to the own goal and, despite losing Adam Baxter following his second yellow card of the game, the ten men were able to see the game out.

FC Hajduk will meet the winners of East Christchurch SSC and Kraken Sports in the final. It's interesting to note that, in the two seasons that the team have competed in the Bournemouth Sunday League, Hajduk have won every BFL competition they have entered, namely Division Four, Division Two, M.A. Hart In-Excess Cup, and M.A. Hart Robbins Cup.

United to meet Sociedad in final

Simao Teixeira made no mistake with the retake and United were in front. Yusuf Akanni equalised for Wanderers early in the second half with a clinical finish and they began to dominate possession. United went ahead again against the run of play though in the 55th minute when they got the ball up to Josh Gennard who took it by a couple of defenders before slotting it past the 'keeper. Wallisdown pressed hard to get on terms again but United defended superbly to book their place in the final
